

CELEBRATE OUR GUESTS OF HONOR

Ellen Gennrich
27 years of service

Susan Marguet
9 years of service

GEOFFREY BISHOP, SPEAKER

Geoffrey E. Bishop hails from North West Australia. After a childhood on his family's sheep station and attending an agricultural boarding school, he attended university in Sydney and Melbourne, where he studied horticulture and landscape architecture.

In 1996, Geoffrey started Nature's Classroom Institute of Wisconsin on 400 acres in Mukwonago, WI. Geoffrey's passions are organics and sustainability in schools, getting children outdoors, and teaching adults the importance of instinctive play in nature.

Geoffrey is a past board chair of the Wisconsin Association of Environmental Education (WAEE), and he has been honored by WAEE as Wisconsin's Non-Formal Educator of the Year.

PROGRAM

CELEBRATING A LEGACY IN CONSERVATION

Join us to celebrate the conservation legacies of Ellen and Susan, who are stepping down from the WCLC board. We will honor and share memories of their service and leadership.

OUR FUTURE ENVIRONMENTAL LEADERS

"WHERE THE SIDEWALK ENDS, TRUE DISCOVERY BEGINS"

Geoffrey Bishop, world-renowned and local environmental educator, will give a brief talk about the importance of connecting young people with the land. In the words of David Attenborough, "No one will protect what they don't care about; and no one will care about what they have never experienced."
